

WEEKEND ITINERARY

Stay and Play this WEEKEND in Rome!

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR STAY IN THE COPPER CITY WITH THIS WEEKEND ITINERARY. IDEAL IF YOU ARE HITTING THE ROAD WITH THE WHOLE FAMILY.

Friday

7:00PM Arrive in Rome and check into your room at the Hampton Inn which has many adjoining rooms for families.

Hampton Inn

1352 Floyd Ave., Rome, NY
(315) 709-0000

8:00PM Head over to Teddy's for dinner and make sure to try their award winning Chicken Riggies.

Teddy's

851 Black River Blvd N.,
Rome, NY | (315) 336-7839

Saturday

8:00AM Fuel up for the day at Raspberries Café. French Toast lovers should try Raspberries' version – piled high with whipped cream and raspberries, naturally.

Raspberries Café

1700 N James St., Rome, NY
(315) 336-1111

10:00AM Start your day by beating the crowds to Rome's most valued historical treasure – Fort Stanwix. Fort Stanwix National Monument commemorates the major role that the original fort had in helping America defeat the British at the Battle of Saratoga. Take a guided tour at the Marinus Willett Center to experience a day in the life of a Revolutionary War hero. At Fort Stanwix National Monument, children are encouraged to explore, ask questions, and participate in park programs and events. At the visitor center, youth of all ages can "Build Your Own Fort" and discover the park's Junior Ranger Station!

Fort Stanwix National Monument & Marinus Willett Center

100 North James St., Rome, NY
(315) 338-7730

1:00PM When you visit Eddie's Paramount Diner, you come for the food. The humble exterior of this diner doesn't do this gem justice. For lunch – pick something your server recommends and consider gabbing a homemade pie to take home!

Eddie's Paramount Diner

414 W Dominick St., Rome, NY
(315) 336-9581

2:00PM For non-stop action, visit Peterpaul's Recreation Park for a day filled with go-karts, bumper boats, batting cages and arcade games.

Peterpaul's Recreation Park

5615 Rome-New London Rd.,
Rome, NY | (315) 339-2666

7:00PM Don't miss out on DiCastro's Brick Oven pizza. From sandwiches, soups, and salads to homemade pasta dishes, exquisite entrees, and amazing brick oven wood-fired pizza, DiCastro's brings an incredible dining experience to those who visit Rome.

DiCastro's Brick Oven

615 Erie Blvd W., Rome, NY
(315) 336-0671

Sunday

8:00AM Rise and shine at The Clover over a cup of coffee and hearty breakfast. The friendly service and generous portions will leave you full and with a smile.

The Clover

287 E Dominick St.,
Rome, NY | (315) 371-0380

9:00AM

Take a nature break and visit Fort Rickey Children's Discovery Zoo. Fort Rickey is a special "hands-on" zoo where kids can feed the animals, hold baby goats, and more.

Fort Rickey Children's Discovery Zoo

5135 Rome-New London Rd.,
Rome, NY | (315) 336-1930

12:00PM Before you leave town make sure to stop by Aquino's for a delicious lunch from their diverse menu.

Aquino's

910 Floyd Ave., Rome, NY
(315) 337-7440

2:00PM If you can sneak it in before going try to stop by the J.F. Kennedy Civic Arena where you can watch or participate in a number of on-ice sports events in the winter months.

J.F. Kennedy Civic Arena

500 W Embargo St, Rome, NY
(315) 339-7768

To find more exciting options to add to your itinerary visit <https://visitromeny.wordpress.com/things-to-do/>.

FIND US @CITYOFROMENY

Stay and Play this WEEKEND in Rome!

MAKE THE MOST OF YOUR STAY IN THE COPPER CITY WITH THIS WEEKEND ITINERARY. PERFECT FOR TRAVELING WITH FRIENDS OR AS A COUPLE.

Friday

7:00PM Arrive in Rome and check into your room at the Hampton Inn which is centrally located to all your weekend activities.

Hampton Inn

1352 Floyd Ave., Rome, NY (315) 709-0000

8:00PM After you get settled in, head over to The Savoy Restaurant for an incredible Italian feast. Don't forget to leave room for dessert though – the chocolate covered cannoli is to die for!

The Savoy Restaurant

255 E Dominick St, Rome, NY

Saturday

8:00AM Fuel up for the day at Raspberries Café. French Toast lovers should try Raspberries' version – piled high with whipped cream and raspberries, naturally.

Raspberries Café

1700 N James St., Rome, NY (315) 336-1111

10:00AM Start your day of adventure by beating the crowds to Rome's most valued historical treasure – Fort Stanwix. Fort Stanwix National Monument commemorates the major role that the original fort had in helping America defeat the British at the Battle of Saratoga. Take a guided tour at the Marinus Willett Center to experience a day in the life of a Revolutionary War hero.

Fort Stanwix National Monument & Marinus Willett Center 100 North James St., Rome, NY | (315) 338-7730

1:00PM Enjoy your lunch as the Romans do at Spressos. Spressos may call itself a coffee shop but for those who are 'in the know', it is far more!

Spressos

160 Brooks Rd., Rome, NY (315) 356-7106

2:00PM When visiting Rome, you will never be far from nature. Walk the entire Mohawk River Trail which serves as a connector to downtown and conduit for viewing the city's beauty. The Trail begins at its southern terminus and trailhead at Bellamy Harbor Park. From there, the trail extends north and connects Rome's waterfront with historical sites, commercial districts, public services, local schools, city parks, the Griffiss Business and Technology Park, and residential neighborhoods, all while offering a unique multi-use trail recreational experience.

5:00PM Wind down at Copper City Brewing Company over handcrafted microbrews. Enjoy your drinks on the patio or indoors in front of a roaring fire during the colder months. If you simply can't decide between their numerous in-house made beers – make sure to ask the bartender for a flight to sample.

Copper City Brewing Co.

1111 Oneida St., Rome, NY (315) 281-8987

7:00PM Don't miss out on DiCastro's Brick Oven pizza. From sandwiches, soups, and salads to homemade pasta dishes, exquisite entrees, and amazing brick oven wood-fired pizza, DiCastro's brings an incredible dining experience to those who visit Rome.

DiCastro's Brick Oven

615 Erie Blvd W., Rome, NY (315) 336-0671

8:00PM Finish your evening with a movie in Rome's historic Capital Theatre. The theatre in and of itself is worth the visit. The auditorium is configured exactly as it was in 1928 and much of the original decor remains including its original Moeller theatre organ.

The Capitol Theatre

220 W. Dominick St., Rome, NY | (315) 337-6277

Sunday

8:00AM Rise and shine at The Clover over a cup of coffee and hearty breakfast. The friendly service and generous portions will leave you full and with a smile.

The Clover

287 E Dominick St., Rome, NY (315) 371-0380

9:00AM

Take a step back into American history by visiting the grave of Francis Bellamy, author of The Pledge of Allegiance. Rome was the home and final resting place of this nationally treasured writer.

Rome Cemetery

1500 Jervis Ave., Rome, NY 13440 (315) 336-6210

12:00PM – Before you leave town make sure to stop by Aquino's for a delicious lunch from their diverse menu.

Aquino's

910 Floyd Ave., Rome, NY (315) 337-7440

2:00PM If you can sneak it in before going try to stop by the Rome Historical Society, home to a collection of artifacts and archives that date back to the time when the Iroquois dominated the land, including more than 14,000 paper objects

Rome Historical Society

200 Church St., Rome, NY (315) 336-5870

